SUBJECT: Intelligence Community staff freeze

25X1

In a discussion with Tom Latimer and Duane Andrews on other subjects this morning, I reminded them again of our interest in the House taking a strong position in conference on the Intelligence Community staff freeze issue. They did not respond with much enthusiasm. However, Duane did make the point that if the House acceded to the Senate position on a freeze, then the House would concede to a likely Senate position against charging the Intelligence Community staff to finance the personnel study. Perhaps you already know this, but in case you don't, here it is.
